PRACTICE AGREEMENT

No nag piano practice

I understand that to get good at something I have to dedicate time to practice daily.

I've decided my START time to practice each day is _____

I understand that going to the piano to practice at this time without having to be told brings great joy to my parents. Their role is to encourage me, not nag me, to listen to some of my pieces and inquire as to how I'm going. They can occasionally say Slow Down!

I've decided to practice the minutes circled here each day: 15 20 30 45 60

I may have a break on the day circled MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT SUN

My weekly goal for total minutes practiced is _____

If I reach my weekly goal I shall be rewarded by _____

If I don't reach my weekly goal I miss out on _____

Signed _____ (student & parent)

IMPORTANT

Don't forget to write your practice times on the PROGRESS TRACKER sheet daily.

At the end of the week make sure to celebrate, play your new pieces for friends & family, and bask in your achievements!
